Hi Matt, here is a map of the 40 acre property on the west side of the DNR's Cady's Marsh property. The landowner's representative contacted the DNR about selling this property for conservation. The DNR is not in the position to purchase this property.

My organization helps to add land to local parks, DNR wildlife areas, etc. If Reedsburg was interested in owning this parcel as a conservancy-style park, perhaps Groundswell could help make that happen.

I haven't spoken with the landowner, so I don't know any details about the landowner's goals.

If you are interested in discussing this possibility, I'd be glad to do so.

Thanks, Jim
